

John Katok

Senior Vice President, Business Development

Mr. Katok joined Global in May, 2008, and is responsible for the Company's Business Development efforts throughout the world. Prior to this, as VP of Middle East/Mediterranean, Mr. Katok headed the Company's efforts to develop and enhance strategic account relationships in that region. Mr. Katok joined Global after more than five years at Technip, Inc. where he served as Vice President, Commercial for that organization's U.S. operations. Previously, Mr. Katok spent more than 25 years with Kellogg, Brown & Root ("KBR") and its predecessor companies in a variety of commercial, management, and operations roles. He is an engineering graduate of West Virginia University where he holds a B.S. in Civil Engineering.