

Marc Portal

Vice President, Information Technology

Marc-Emmanuel Portal joined Global Industries in September 2007 as Vice President of Information Technology and Communications. Marc has more than 15 years of experience in the oil and gas industry. He started at Schlumberger in R&D for their Wireline then Drilling and measurement divisions. He moved to Information Technology where he held director level positions in both operations and supply chain with a special interest in Merger and Acquisitions and Change Management. Prior to joining Global, Marc was the Assistant CIO for Transocean. Marc holds a Diplome d'Ingenieur from INPG in France, and a Masters and PhD in Nuclear Engineering from Texas A&M University.